The complete version:

A font is a software so when you purchase it or download a free font, you are getting a license to use this software. Therefore this document establishes the terms and conditions by which you are permitted to install and use our fonts.

When buying some of our paid fonts, or downloading some of our free ones you are being granted with a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use our fonts under the following terms and conditions.

You can not distribute and/or sell our fonts to third parties without prior written consent from Typographies.

If you bought some font(s), it may be installed and used only on the number of devices it was licensed for, as identified in your sales receipt.

Our standard, single user license allows for installing the font(s) in 2 devices, so that you can install and use it in a desktop and a laptop computer, or two desktops or two laptops.

In the case of free font(s) you can install it and use it in any number of devices you want.

You can not store or use our fonts in some manner that would make them accessible to the public or non-licensed third parties, but in the specific case of using some third party software to generate web fonts, you can do it provided that the specific party erase the font files from their devices after providing the service.

This license is for individual users or organizations purchasing for authorized employees only.

You can not share this license with contractors, freelance employees, or affiliates. If there is the need for it, we ask you to kindly purchase another license for them or instruct them to do so.

To reproduce a particular document, you may provide a copy of the specified fonts to a commercial printer or service bureau. Afterwards, the printer or service bureau must erase the copies of the fonts files from their devices.

Our fonts can be embedded into digital documents as long as:

- the font software is subset

You may make a reasonable number of copies of the font software for back-up purposes only. Copies must contain the same documentation, copyright, trademark, and other proprietary notices that appear on, in or with the fonts.

Using Typographias fonts with the CSS rule @font-face or other forms of font linking, is permitted under this Agreement.

This License permits the embedding, inclusion, calling or linking of the font software within hardware and software.

Rasterized images of text and/or logos created using the font software are permitted.

You may create outline artworks based upon the font software for your personal or business use. However, the use of any font creation or font manipulation program or any attempt to modify the font for the purposes of creating a usable, derivative or substitute version of the font is prohibited. Under no circumstances may you modify, adapt, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, alter, or otherwise attempt to discover the source code of the font software or the designs embodied therein. You further agree not to commission or authorize any third party to undertake modifications to the fonts without prior written consent from Typographias.

You expressly acknowledge that the font software, the designs embodied therein, the trade names and/or trademarks and copyrights associated therewith are each the exclusive property of Typographias. All rights not expressly granted under this License are reserved to Typographias.

You agree that the fonts and the design of the fonts embodied therein are owned by Typographias and the fonts' structure, organization and code are the valuable trade secrets of Typographias.

Typographias represents and warrants that the fonts will perform substantially in accordance with the representations made herein. To make a warranty claim, you must notify the source from which you obtained the font software together with a copy of your sales receipt.
